Country Artist Jordan Rainer Wraps Up A Monumental Year While Gearing Up For 2024

- 2024 Straight Shot Tour Officially Announced -

NASHVILLE, TENN. — Fire spittin’ country artist and quadruple threat Jordan Rainer wraps up a notable year with major milestones under her belt and announces her 2024 Straight Shot Tour, officially kicking off in January.

Jordan recently celebrated her very first No. 1 song on the Texas Regional Radio Charts with her current rock edge country song, Straight Shot. This single followed her previous chart-topping releases including Top 15 hit Damn Sandwich and Top 20 hit You Made A Rock, whom she teamed up with Texas Red-Dirt artist Shayne Porter. Earlier this year, she also took home the highly coveted trophy for New Female Vocalist of the Year at the Texas Country Music Awards as well as the New Faces of Texas Country Music Award. She has garnered national and international print and TV exposure and received praise and support from some of the biggest artists in music including Reba McEntire, Gwen Stefani, John Legend, Niall Horan, Wynonna, and Chance the Rapper, while being a contestant on The Voice.

Dubbed by her fans as the woman in black, Jordan’s journey on Season 24 of The Voice proved that she is a household name. Her blind audition of Reba McEntire’s hit Fancy knocked the socks off the coaches with her authentic and true sound, thus receiving a four-chair turn which landed her a spot on Team Reba. This audition has since been viewed over 1.1M on The Voice’s official YouTube page. Since then, Jordan brought the same energy in every performance, impressing all the coaches and mentors and proving that she is earning her stake in country music.

“Jordan, you are so different and that’s what we need in country music – your enthusiasm, your passion, your love for country music. We need you in there, absolutely...you are a force of nature!” – Reba McEntire

“Wow. I love a woman who’s sassy. You’re a kick in the butt. We need that sound...that pure country twang...it’s just good.” – Wynonna Judd

“It has been a dream to have my idol Reba McEntire as my coach,” says Jordan. “I have so much respect for all the coaches and mentors and have made some great friends along the way. This year has been amazing and I’m super excited for everything my team and I have planned for 2024. It’s going to be one heck of a year!”

Already with a reputation as one of the hardest working women in the business, Jordan is an artist, songwriter, producer and guitarist. With over three quarters of a million followers just on TikTok, Jordan is reaching new fans daily with her music as well as her storytelling clips, which landed numerous Newsweek features and a nationalized televised appearance on the Tamron Hall show earlier this year, where she discussed women’s intuition and her brush with abduction. As a songwriter, she has written for other artists including Sundance Head’s #1 Texas hit Three People, as well as his title track for his previous album Stained Glass and Neon, and currently, some of her songs are on hold by major recording artists.

About Jordan Rainer: Dubbed as country music's woman in black, Jordan Rainer is catching fire with audiences of all ages, backgrounds and musical tastes. With over a quarter of a million streams just on Spotify, Jordan has received critically-acclaimed praise in numerous print and TV placements, secured a CMT video premiere for her hit Damn

Sandwich, receiving national and international airplay in Australia, Europe, Ireland, London, Switzerland, and the U.K, and more.

Born in Atoka, OK and raised in Whitewright, TX, Jordan pulls her audiences in and has a knack for turning loud bars into a private showcase. Much like her music, her performance is an art form of its own. She wins crowds over with the energy and spunk she exudes while playing. She turns strangers into fans, and fans into an extension of her family, building an intimately connected and established base that will show up wherever she plays. With her witty lyrics, masterful guitar playing and unique voice, she has been embraced as a peer by respected artists and songwriters such as Dean Dillon (George Strait-The Chair, Marina Del Rey), The Voice coaches Reba McEntire, Gwen Stefani, John Legend, and Niall Horan, as well as Chance the Rapper and Wynonna Judd. With her intricate lyrics, masterful guitar playing and commanding voice, Jordan Rainer is showcasing an artistic vision and becoming one of country music's keenest working storytellers, bringing honesty and raw intimate talent back into this genre.
